#nzifst #nzifstconf24 #diversityinfood

The Poster Session Rules:

- Please ensure that at least one of the authors of the poster are present and registered to attend the conference. IMPORTANT: Any posters without a registered author as at 5pm Monday 18th June will be automatically withdrawn. Registration details to come.
- If you would like the poster to be in the Student Poster Competition, the student must be registered and be a current financial member of the NZIFST. Join Us \(nzifst.org.nz\)
- Posters can be put up on Monday 1st July between 1pm and 5pm, or on Tuesday 2nd July before lunch; and will need to be taken down on Thursday 4th July after morning tea. Please check with registration for your poster board number.
- The presenter must be with their poster during the Evening Networking Session on Tuesday 2nd July.
- The Poster Competition winner will be announced at the NZIFST Awards Dinner on Wednesday 5th July.

The Poster:

- The poster size is maximum 1.0m wide by maximum 1.2m high – portrait orientation only. Larger sizes will not fit the boards and will not be accepted at the conference.
- In order to mount the posters, we recommend the following:
 - Paper/laminated posters should be mounted using Velcro Hooks – 6 pieces per poster are recommend – please bring this with you.
 - Fabric posters will need to be mounted with thumb tacks – please bring these with you.
- If you wish to supply printed copies of your poster, please attach these to the board in a plastic pocket below the poster.
